FM CONWAY CLEANS UP AT PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS

Dartford-based highways maintenance and recycling specialist, FM Conway, has been recognised at the Highways Magazine Excellence Awards for its significant contribution to the highways industry.

On the night FM Conway fought off tough competition from Balfour Beatty and Leicestershire County and City Councils. FM Conway won the award in the Environmental Sustainability in the Highways Sector category.

FM Conway claimed the converted accolade for its pioneering highways cleansing and aggregate recycling system, which enables the dramatic reduction of CO₂ emissions and minimises landfill waste.

The team attended a glittering awards ceremony and gala dinner at the Millennium Hotel London Mayfair, headed by managing director Michael Conway: "We are thrilled to be recognised by the industry for our dedication to environmentally sustainable practices. It's a credit to the commitment and innovation of the FM Conway team."

The Highways Magazine Excellence Awards are designed to celebrate the achievements of organisations which have demonstrated excellence, innovation and best practice within the industry.
